

V.I. SOURCE

For your ease of reference here is a punch-list of everything you need to know about Source legal advertising:

The Process

Email a Word document of your notice as you would like it to appear to both of the following email addresses: visourcerep@gmail.com and visource@gmail.com
Your notice will be published and you will be emailed tearsheets and an invoice within 24 hours.

Your notice will be published online in all three V.I. Source publications for up to 30 consecutive days, more than satisfying all territorial requirements.

At the end of publication, hard copies of all tear sheets and the executed affidavit will be mailed via the post office. For your convenience, you will be emailed tear sheets and an electronic copy of the executed affidavit as well.

Rush service is available for an additional fee.

Cost

A flat fee of $400 per notice includes all publication services, except for:

Affidavit Fee: $25.

Rush Service Fee: $50.

Payment

You will be invoiced via email on the date of first publication.

Payment is due no later than the completion of the publication run.

The Source...

Has been publishing legal notices since it was first designated a "Newspaper of General Circulation" in 2001.

Has a circulation of 90,000 readers locally and abroad.

Costs an average of 30% to 60% less for legal notice publication than the other options.

We look forward to working with you! If you have any further questions, please don't hesitate to contact us.
