

EXAMPLE Hurricane Preparedness 120-Hour Family Task List

120 Hours (5 Days) - List tasks below	Responsible Person(s)
Take pictures of house and vehicle; upload to personal cloud and jump drive.	Martin Trench
Secure important documents for every household member	Martin and Sarah
Prepare ice for coolers.	Everson & Ms. Beverly
Recheck our Hurricane Disaster Checklist and add items to our kits, if needed.	Everyone
Review our family disaster budget and check the emergency account.	Martin and Sarah

96 Hours (4 Days) - List tasks below	Responsible Person(s)
Back up cellular phones and computer files	Sarah Trench
Begin charging all solar batteries.	Issac Trench
Complete banking tasks include getting cash.	Martin and Sarah
Confirm and share our communication and sheltering plan (Family Disaster Plan) with neighbors and off-island relatives my communication and sheltering plan.	Everyone - Family Meeting
Go to the hardware store, and the pharmacy for supplies.	Martin Trench

72 - 48 Hours (Four to Three Days) - List tasks below	Responsible Person(s)
Close all windows and put-up shutters.	Everyone
Communicate any changes to sheltering plan and Family Disaster Plan to neighbors and off-island hurricane contact.	Family Meeting
Secure all lawn furniture, and outside cooking equipment.	Martin Trench
Charge all electrical devices and portable cellular chargers.	Martin and Issac
Place the vehicle " Go Kit " in the car trunk in case of evacuation.	Sarah Trench

Hurricane Preparedness 120-Hour Family Task List

48 - 24 Hours (Two - One Days) - List tasks below	Responsible Person(s)
Fill up the vehicle and do inventory of all emergency vehicle supplies.	Martin and Sarah
Clean the refrigerator, cook meals, then tie down the gas tank.	Sarah and Issac
Wash out the pet cage and place it in our hurricane safe room.	Issac and Isabel
Wash all laundry.	Martin and Sarah

12 - 0 Hours (Landfall) - List tasks below	Responsible Person(s)
Complete one last check of the vehicle and the area outside the house.	Martin and Sarah
Disconnect spouts to the cistern to avoid damage and contamination.	Martin Trench
Final check of neighbors and family members.	Everyone